

RDA Membership Application Form

The Restoration Decade Alliance (RDA) is a network of Australia's pre-eminent environmental organisations, united in our collective efforts to support the goals of the UN Decade on Ecosystem Restoration. Member and Partner organisations represent various areas of expertise and work together for more effective, intersectional ecosystem restoration efforts and outcomes.

Member organisations are larger restoration groups of good standing* (non-profit or for-profit) whose core activity is the promotion and/or practice of ecological restoration.

Member organisations have an opportunity to contribute to, collaborate with, and benefit from this outstanding alliance of Australian restoration organisations by:

- Promoting targeted action by Australian communities in the Decade;
- Sharing best-practice knowledge; and,
- Influencing national and state policies etc. as a 'single voice'.

Member groups receive the following benefits:

- Email and newsletter communication of any collective RDA campaigns and communication initiatives;
- National amplification of the member organisation's UN Decade-relevant stories and events through RDA social media;
- Use of the RDA logo in promoting the member organisation's projects that support the goals of the UN Decade on ER;
- Right to participate in all general meetings and to apply to attend an RDA Steering Committee meeting for a specific purpose; and,
- Opportunity to take part in Working Groups of the RDA.

The RDA asks, in return, that the Member:

- Signs up to The Darwin Agreement, Code of Ethical Conduct, adopts the aspirations of the National Standards for Ecological Restoration, and provides their logo to RDA;
- Regularly promotes the goals of the UN Decade on ER to their stakeholders and public;
- Reports to the RDA your organisation's stories and events that support the goals of the UN Decade on ER; and,

- Considers (and actively supports as appropriate) RDA's 'single voice' campaigns or other initiatives (Members can abstain from being included in specific advocacy statements on request).

**The RDA Steering Committee reserve the right to review a Member's status at any time.*
